Message from Your President:

It is official! Lake Norman Shag Club will host the 2017 ACSC Summer Workshop! We presented to the board of directors of the ACSC, SOS and the presidents of all clubs or their designated representatives. The vote was a resounding unanimous!

I want to thank all involved thus far, Sharon Simpson; Wanda Cavin; Stella Duggins; Mary Robinette and a very special thank you to T.K. Robinette!!! T.K. did an outstanding job during the presentation! He is absolutely awesome!

Least I forget, those who traveled to DC for the workshop. The group was; Shirley and Stan, Donnie and Del, Sue and Donnie, Tootsie and Dave; Stella and Chad; Carol and Taylor; Bill and Wanda and Mary and T.K.! Thank you! Be sure to thank them! Their support and encouragement also helped to seal the deal!!!

Prior to the meeting we had a great meeting that included two ACSC board members that gave us some very positive pointers and encouragement!

I am so proud to be associated with all of you!!!

So now the work begins. We will continue to negotiate the offer from Embassy Suites and I am pleased to say we have several experts to help close the deal! Stay tuned!

After the presentation I had many people from area shag clubs congratulate us and make the comment that they cannot wait; Lake Norman will do an excellent job! This is because of our reputation! As I said during the presentation, "Lake Norman is a very friendly, caring and capable club"! Your support, positive attitude and caring/loving nature is what made our reputation! Believe me, Lake Norman has an excellent reputation!

In the coming months we will be asking for your help, but please don't wait for us, come forward, if you haven't already, and tell us you want to help. We need everyone involved.

As I look forward to the upcoming golf tournament, please come out! We all will have a great time both golfer and non-golfer, it's going to be a great day to remember and raise money to help promote "shag" music by our donation to WSGE radio station.

We still have a few bus tickets available to the party in Morganton. We talked to John Carpenter, member of Sandy Beach Shag Club, and he said, Sandy Beach will do something very special for our group! And I have no doubt.... he will!

Reported by Dave Sexton:

Since Bill Cavin gave us grief about not writing about our trip to Saluda, I thought I would include a few paragraphs about our trip to Saluda and also about our trip to Washington D.C.

We had a good group of people journey to Saluda to help raise money for the Depot. The Bundy's were able to kill two birds with one stone for they had recently purchased a mobile home and this was the perfect opportunity to take it out for its first test drive. Jeff and Bill sat up front and I was stuck in the back with four HOT MAMAS.

I am not sure if it was the a/c not working correctly or my riding companions, but I was sweating like a whore in church. We had a great trip and some of the outstanding items I remember were: Pam introduced us to some new cookies. They were heavenly. Next I learned that Wanda picks all of the grapes off the stems for her husband and then serves them. I felt like a king, but I was still sweating.

Marianna had reserved us a parking space in a church lot so when we arrived we were able to just pull in a feel safe.

After parking we were ready to eat and party. We would like to thank John and Marianna for inviting us to such a quaint and pleasant place to have food, drinks, and fun with our friends from LNSC and with new friends. In the picture below you can see John and Marianna dancing while Marianna's mother watches. Her mother is the attractive woman on the right with the white sweater. I would try and name each person that went but I am afraid I will forget someone, and I do not want hurt anyone's feelings. After looking at my pictures I do not think I have a picture with everyone either. I will just say if you were there you will know how much fun we had, and if you were not there we missed you.

Thank you Saluda for your hospitality!

Washington D.C.

I would like to say before getting into the details about our trip why Tootsie and I went on this trip. First and foremost Tootsie takes her position on the board serious and she felt like we should be there to help represent LNSC. Second we know absolutely nothing about running a workshop and we felt like we could learn a lot while attending.

We arrived in Washington on Wednesday the 8th of July, we met Bill and Wanda Cavin, and Terry and Carolyn Hopper and we had dinner at Red Hot and Blue Restaurant . On Thursday the Hopper's and the Sexton's took a bus into D.C. for a tour. We made our plan of attack and decided we would walk and see some sights. The first sight we saw was the Capital building.

We could see the Washington monument and decided to head in that direction. After the Washington monument we headed to the Lincoln Memorial.

From the Lincoln memorial we headed back towards the White House. By the time we viewed the White House we were ready to sit down, eat, and rest. We had a nice lunch at a French restaurant that was a little on the pricey side. However, by this time I would have paid any price to sit down and enjoy the air conditioning. After we ate we headed to the Ford's theatre where Lincoln was assassinated . I am confident that while our host was describing the events of how Mr. Lincoln was shot, the three people to my right (Tootsie, Carolyn, and Terry) started snoring. I admit we were dog tired and we felt like we were in heaven because of the coolness, but that does not excuse sleeping. Just sayin! By now we have had enough and we decided to go back to the hotel. You will have to get Terry or Carolyn to tell you this story for it is a good one.

Friday has arrived and it's time for the workshop to begin. Wanda and Bill were staying in the Presidential suite and they had a very large room where we could all sit and discuss things. Terry held our first meeting which was to discuss with TK and Mary how we would present everything to the Board. Saturday came, and it was our time to make the proposal. We all walked into the meeting and stood in a line against the wall (as there were not enough chairs for all of us to sit down) and were there for the support of Terry and TK as they gave their speeches. I wish I could tell you more but prior to them talking I was forced to leave the room, but my thoughts were with Terry and TK all the way.

Later that evening after being informed that the board had accepted our request to host the workshop, we all met in the Presidential Suite again to have a few drinks and enjoy our victory. Laughs and stories were told by all. I am not sure how it happened but I got to talking about my favorite pirate from Sandy Beach Shag club, and how they beat LNSC in the SOS parade. Before I tell the rest of this story please remember there was a little alcohol involved. Anyway, I made the comment no wonder we got our ass kicked in the parade because Sandy Beach dresses their women as sexy pirates and we dress our hot mamas up as ducks (chickens) and send them down the parade strip. Well, shortly after making this comment I started getting boos and sly comments, but what really shut my mouth was the "Wicked" moon that fell over the meeting in D.C.

Seriously, we had a great time at the workshop and now have a better understanding for what we have ahead of us. I am confident that we will put on a memorable workshop.

Tootsie's version of DC trip.....

Tour de DC

David and I had the opportunity to attend the ACSC Summer Workshop in Herndon, VA. this past weekend. Since LNSC was looking to host the 2017 event, we thought that it was a good idea to attend one to see what it was all about. That being said, we decided to go a couple of days early to take in some history by site seeing. We arrived on Wednesday and made a plan to get up early on Thursday and head to DC with the Hopper's. We took the hotel shuttle to the airport along with some friends from other shag clubs, we then took the bus from the airport to downtown DC. At that point we split off from the other groups and decided to walk rather than take the hop on/hop off, after all, we are seasoned walkers and we could certainly handle it. We walked and walked and took in as many sites and as much history review as we could. It was very hot that day and very humid, we were no longer glistening, we were pouring with perspiration. David's back pack was soaking wet as well as all of his clothes. He looked like a heart attack victim! It was getting close to lunch time and more than anything, I wanted something very cold to drink. Most of you know, my drink of choice other than water is a good glass of wine. I wanted an ice cold beer and couldn't get it fast enough! We ran up on this beautiful hotel with outdoor seating which had a menu posted outside. Great! I don't see beer on the menu and besides that, hamburgers were $28 and a salad with meat on it was $32. No, this was too expensive, keep walking. The next place we came to also had outdoor seating and at that point, we would take anything. The host tried to seat us outside and I asked if there was seating inside. He said "yes, you look like you need to cool off", so he headed us inside. I can only imagine what the others were thinking as we proceeded to sit and beg for beer. They were all dressed in suits and very upscale professional clothing, drinking their bottled Perrier water and engaging in serious conversations. You had to be there to appreciate it. Carolyn ordered a glass of wine, which was no more than 1.5 ounces, not even enough to wet her lips. Actually, it was like a slap in the face! Her wine was $11, my beer was $7.25, and David and Terry got the cheap beer for $7.

Lunch was good and also expensive, however we had to hurry and eat before we got thrown out. We didn't dare order another drink even as much as we wanted to. After that experience, we decide we had time for maybe one more site before heading back to the hotel. We were tired and happened to be in an air conditioned beautiful historical building and 3 of us fell asleep. With that, we were done! Then our journey back to the hotel began. We managed to meet up with our friends that we started out with. I hate to say it, but they may be smarter than us. They took the hop on/hop off and ate lunch from the food vendors on the street for a fraction of what we paid. Now, they were also dragging and looked about like us.....somebody, please get us to the hotel and fast! We made it back safely, but it was not easy as we got on the wrong metro.

I think we had "stupid" written on our face, so many people were trying to help us get on the right track, we even got free metro tickets. They really felt sorry for us!
End of story!

We had a great trip, met a lot of people and realized that we have a lot of work to do in preparation for 2017. I know we can do this and have fun doing it. We put on an awesome event in February with which we are known for. This is an opportunity to showcase our club and show everyone what we are really made of, however, it is going to take the commitment from each and everyone to make sure we meet the needs of our guests .

Shagging On Saluda

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you to all the Lake Norman Shag Club members who traveled to Saluda NC Sat. June 13 to support "Shagging On Saluda". This was a benefit to Save the Historic Saluda Depot and your contributions were very much appreciated.

Curtis Treece provided great music and the food & venue was fantastic. Hopefully we can return to Saluda sometime in the future and Lake Norman Shag Club take over the back deck of Thompson Store.

John & Marianna Hass

Our annual Chicken-Pickin is just around the corner (give or take 6 months or so), and already plans are being made and, in some cases, finalized. Mark your calendar for the following dates: Feb. 11-13, 2016 at the Arcade in North Myrtle Beach Remember this is also Valentine week-end. Several hotels have been contacted for special rates and we should have these prices within a week. Many of you have already volunteered to help and we will be looking for others to assist. Sign-up sheets will be available, probably at the September meeting. Amanda Berry will be in charge of the door prizes and, "Silent Auction," and she is seeking items for these projects. She can be contact at: atberry47@yahoo.com or 704-609-6101 (text or call). Carol and I would also like to sincerely thank all you who have already volunteered to help make this another very successful event.
