

THE SHAGGIN' SHEWS

Message from Your President

As I write my last article as your president, I would like to thank each of you for your support; it has been an honor to serve for which I am truly humbled.

Our membership is approaching 200; our donations to non-profits have continued to grow and your club continues to be well respected! I know we will continue on this path because LNSC is a caring group of people that treat all with respect. Members are not required to do anything, only enjoy the fellowship and volunteer when and what they enjoy doing. It is a simple philosophy, funny how the simplest things are often the ones that work the best.

The 2017 Summer Workshop:

We are hard at work; we had the first meeting with our marketing and vendor teams. The marketing team is hard at work with the task of the theme. The vendor committee is looking for vendors that will be appealing to all who attend. I will send an email to remind people of which committee they sign up for along with a calendar of when we will meet and where.

Please bring an unwrapped gift for a girl or boy to our Christmas Party this Saturday, December the 5th. Randy Byers will take them to Duke Power, who will forward to the "Toys for Tots" program. Thanks in advance for all the participates in this program.

We will have a very brief business meeting before the Christmas Party to vote on a new board member; Taylor Duggin's name was nominated to be your next Vice President. Pam Bundy has agreed to be your new president and the remaining board has agreed to stay in their current capacity.

Due to the Christmas party we will not be taking in monies for Chicken Pickin' or SOS cards. We ask you to please wait until our January meeting.

Finally, a friend of mine sent this out in an email. I thought it was so appropriate for the season and in our daily lives.

BELIEVE the best IN each other.
WANT the best FOR each other.
EXPECT the best FROM each other.

Again thanks for your support and friendship.

Terry

What is Beach Music?

by Mike Worley

While there are several things we cannot pinpoint, one thing is certain, there are a variety of ideas and opinions about what constitutes Beach Music. I probably have one of the most diverse tastes in music of anyone you will come across. To me the only benefit of a genre is that it brings some order to the most expansive form of art that exists. But at the end of the day, it all falls under the label of art. Some like fine art, others prefer abstract while I like and at least can appreciate it all.

Music, in general, is one the most powerful forces that exist. It has the ability to make you happy or sad, take you back in time or cause you to dream about your future. Music tells stories and has the ability to express feelings to which people connect. Music can speak to your soul, make you feel alive and if only temporarily, help you forget pain and sorrow. The beautiful thing about beach music is that it consists of a wide variety of styles including local, regional and nationally recognized artists. If you look through beach music charts from the 60's on through to the present, you see particular times when the charts were heavily influenced by Rock, Blues, Motown, Disco, Country or even what would be considered Main Stream styles of music. Now, take all of these genres mix them up, dump it out and what you have is Beach Music. Beach Music has something for everyone which makes it unique and appealing. To put it another way, Beach Music "colors outside of the lines".

I realize that not everyone embraces the "new stuff" (even the term "new stuff" has different definitions by the way; meaning present day music or music beyond a particular time period such as the 60's and 70's). The point to note is that the "old stuff" at one time was the "new stuff". Thankfully, at that time, the music was given a chance. Radio stations played it, jukeboxes were loaded with it, music venues and clubs hired the bands and people bought the albums. All of these variables took a song once labeled as "new stuff" turned it into a hit and over time it became what we now know as a classic.

Beach music represents a lifestyle that marches to its own beat and refuses to be boxed up and packaged a certain way just to gain approval from the masses. Beach Music has, in no way, been a flash in the pan; rather it has slowly and methodically been ingrained in the lives of countless people throughout the years and this not only insures it will live but THRIVE! Each of us plays a part in making sure this thing we call Beach Music and the great lifestyle it entails continues to be shared and experienced by generations to come. The way time flies and music changes, just think what Beach Music will consist of in 20 years!

Note from your editor....

Earlier I sent an e-mail asking for your Birthday & Anniversary dates, if you have not responded to my e-mail, please do so now and give me your birthday month & day and your anniversary month/day/year.

If you are not receiving my Shagaholic News that I send out each week of happenings in & around our area, shoot me an e-mail and I'll get you added to the list.

I still need your ideas/articles to make this a better newsletter! Please send me anything you would like to see in our newsletter to the e-mail address listed below. What would you like to see included in your newsletter? Recipes, famous quotes? Let me know what you want included!!! If you have an idea that you think would make the newsletter more interesting, please don't hesitate to let me know!
